Response to Office Action

Dear Mr. Poinvil:

In reply to your office action, please enter this Response to your points, comprising:

- 1) substitute specification: including, Description of the Preferred Embodiments, the substitute specification explicitly sets forth means and functions;
- 2) notarized statement that substitute specification does not contain new matter;
- 3) replacement drawings, from drawings and specifications as I originally filed;
- 4) letter to the draftsman, presenting my new drawings, plus marked-up old ones;
- 5) red ink mark-up of copy of my application, 09/489,739, as I originally filed it;
- 6) substitute set of claims I drafted, claims 13 to 25, replacing my claims 1 to 4;
- 7) credit card payment form, authorizing payment of $495 for the extension fee.

I request that you write an abstract for the application, which I would truly appreciate.

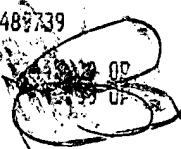

Sincerely,

David Andrew D'Zmura
